

Certificate of Financial Responsibility

In addition to meeting our language and academic requirements, you must be able to finance your education. Reading and completing this certificate will help you devise a funding plan for your educational and living expenses. When returning this completed form, make sure you scan color copies of your financial documents. This form and all documents should be sent to michael.voegerl@nmt.edu.

Estimated Costs for One Academic Year:

Before we can issue an I-20 or a DS-2019, we need to know that you will have sufficient funds to support your educational and living expenses here at New Mexico Tech. For the estimated costs, see the "SEVIS Figures for I-20" in your packet. The estimated costs include tuition, lab fees, books, housing, food and travel expenses. These are just estimates, your costs could be more or less depending on your particular situation.

Important Note to Family Sponsors:

Privacy laws in the United States prevent New Mexico Tech from divulging any information about a student's enrollment, courses chosen or the grades earned --to the parents---without explicit consent from the student. To get this information you may require the student to sign a "consent form" in our Registrars Office, specifying that educational information about progress and grades be shared with you when you request it. You may request that your student obtain official transcripts and send them to you. Transcripts are available at any time and they contain the most up-to-date information after the close of each semester.
